

WILD CHERRY SCHOOL

For Waldorf/Steiner Education

DEMOCRATIC PRINCIPLES

Wild Cherry School is committed to adhering to the principles and practise of Australian Democracy within all programs and teaching, including:

- belief in elected Government
- responsible government
- commitment to the rule of law
- transparent criminal justice system
- equal rights for all before the law
- freedom of religion
- freedom of speech, including a free media
- freedom of association
- values of openness and tolerance
- human rights being the birthright of all people whatever their race, gender, disability, language, religion, political or other opinion, national or social origin, age, property or other status.

We will communicate our commitment to Australian Democracy to the staff of Wild Cherry within their staff induction pack, which they will receive upon signing of an employment contract.

We will communicate our commitment to Australian Democracy to the children and families of the Wild Cherry school community within the Student Information Pack.

There will always be a copy within the office available for perusal by anyone at any time upon request.
